TO WHOM : Director of Administration, DPS/DCI
Deputy Director, DPS/DCI

SUBJECT : AMDC's Part in Project CORONA

25X1A REFERENCE : [redacted] dated 3 November 1973

1. You will recall our conference on 3 November concerning the need for CORONA clearance of certain individuals within Headquarters, AMDC, raised by [redacted] from DDCI. At that time, it was agreed it should be discussed with General Donald Flickinger and an indication given to him of our desire for this item being raised with General Anderson. It was hoped the list could be firmly established and surviving personnel deleted; and that those remaining would be given a strong security briefing regarding CORONA.

2. On 11 November, Colonel Burke and I met with General Flickinger and thoroughly reviewed this subject. He agreed to discuss the matter with General Anderson. On 12 November, General Flickinger spoke with General Anderson and found him in complete sympathy with our objectives. General Anderson indicated he felt the following should be the only personnel in AMDC Headquarters cleared for CORONA:

Major General Samuel E. Anderson
Brigadier General Donald D. Flickinger
Colonel Benson C. Appold

3. General Anderson indicated he would personally apprise the other persons that they should protect the security of the
